

Workshop agenda

Tuesday, April 16

Scenarios as a means of sharing lessons learned from natural crises

- 12:00 Welcome and lunch, Rikus van Santen , ISAR Germany
- 13:00 Welcoming remarks, José Maria Sarriegi, Tecnun, ELITE project coordinator
- Introduction of consortium and workshop participants
 - Aim and objectives of ELITE
- 14:00 Key note speaker: Lessons learned from crises: forest fires (speaker, tbc)
- 15:00 Coffee break
- 15:10 Scenario presentation: Forest fire cases in rural areas, Tonje Grunnan, Norwegian Defence Research Establishment (FFI)
- 15:30 Scenario group discussions
- Topics: Procedures of crisis management, interoperability challenges, training effectiveness etc.
- 16:30 Break
- 16:40 Scenario presentation: Forest fire cases in urban areas, Tonje Grunnan, FFI
- 17:00 Scenario group discussions
- Topics: Identify common problems, procedures of crisis management, interoperability challenges, training effectiveness etc.
- 18:30 Dinner
- 20:00 Group summaries: preparing presentations
- 21:30 Optional: Social gathering in the bar

Wednesday, April 17

*Learning from crises –
how can we make best practices?*

Breakfast

09:00 Group presentations – findings from day 1

11:00 Key note speaker: Learning processes within crisis management organizations (speaker, tbc)

12:00 Lunch

13:00 Plenary discussion, moderator Stewart Kowalski, Gjøvik University College

Introduction to discussion: What is the “living” document and how can this tool benefit your organization?, José Maria Sarriegi, Tecnun

Topics: Learning processes within organizations, tools used to improve learning processes, barriers that avoid learning etc.

15:10 Coffee break

15:10 Questions & Answers: Opinions from CoP on ELITE, moderator José Maria Sarriegi, Tecnun

16:00 Closing statement

Shuttle bus to airport